

Industry Experience - Seminars & Guest Speakers

Name of Speaker	Company & Title/Position	Date, Time Location	Title of Seminar Description of Presentation
Bob Bierley Al Jordan	Both retired General Motors Executvies	10/25/10 and 10/29/10 MTA classrooms	Critical Thinking Seminar: 2- part series examining how to apply critical thinking skills to information presented in articles, charts, etc. Learned how to use statistical analysis of data to determine the validity of the arguments presented and to accurately interpret the data.
Dawn Champnella	Quality and Chemical Engineer	11/08 - 09/10 7:30 am - 2:30 pm MTA classrooms	Teams Problem Solving Training: Learned the Plan Do Study Act (PDSA) problem-solving method utilizing industry tools used to gather, interpret, and analyze data in order to continuously improve processes. Applied this process to a company simulation.
Ann Swaney	NMC Osterlin Library	4/27/11 8:00 - 10:30 am	Learned how to do technical research using the computer databases; tour technical section of library; given time to utilize resources for alloy project
Cliff Kelto	Material and Process Engineering	5/02/11 7:30 - 11:30 am	Hardness Testing Seminar/Lab: Learned to use Rockwell, Brinell, and Rockwell Superficial testing equipment